Should you use a startup accelerator?

Use this to help decide if an accelerator is a good choice. The more you answer “yes”, the more likely an accelerator can help your business scale.

- Is this your first startup?
- Do you want to increase your knowledge of the industry or sector?
- Do you need to build your network?
- Do you still need to start raising venture funds?
- Are you able to make a three-month long commitment to an accelerator?
- Will an accelerator help solve specific challenges you face?
- Do you already have a product or prototype?
