

RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. PURPOSE

1.1 Purpose. The Risk Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Boards of Directors of SVB Financial Group (“SVBFG”) and Silicon Valley Bank (the “Bank”), and is a committee of both boards (collectively, the “Board”).¹ The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in its oversight of the enterprise risk management of SVBFG and its subsidiaries (including the Bank) (the “Company”), specifically:

- Oversight of the Company’s enterprise risk management policies;
- Oversight of the operation of the Company’s enterprise risk management framework;
- Review of changes to the Company’s risk profile; and
- Oversight of the Company’s compliance with its Risk Appetite Statement.

Management is responsible for the Company’s enterprise risk management, designing, implementing, and maintaining an effective risk management framework for the Company, and planning for, and responding to, the Company’s material risks. The Committee’s and the Board’s role is one of oversight and review. The Committee shall receive and review the periodic and other reports made by management, and periodically meet with management, regarding the enterprise risk management matters for which the Committee has oversight responsibility.

The Committee shall report to the Board regularly, and as the Committee determines appropriate, and shall be responsible for any other matters delegated to it by the Board.

1.2 Committee Resources and Expenses. The Board and management shall ensure that the Committee has adequate resources and authority to discharge its responsibilities. The Company shall provide appropriate funding for the payment of any expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties, including expenses relating to any external consultants or advisers retained by the Committee. The Committee is authorized to obtain advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting, or other advisors at the Company’s expense without the prior approval of the Board or management.

II. OVERSIGHT RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Risk Management Policies. The Committee shall approve and periodically review the enterprise risk management policies of the Company’s global operations.

¹ References made herein to actions taken by the “Board” shall require the minimum number of votes or consents required pursuant to both respective bylaws of the Company and the Bank, as applicable.

2.2 Risk Management Framework.

- The Committee shall oversee the operation of the Company's enterprise risk management framework, which includes risk management policies and procedures establishing risk management governance, risk management procedures, and risk control infrastructure for the Company's global operations, and processes and systems for implementing and monitoring compliance with such policies and procedures, including processes and systems for:
- Identifying and reporting risks and risk management deficiencies, including emerging risks, and ensuring effective and timely implementation of actions to address emerging risks and risk management deficiencies for the Company's global operations;
- Establishing managerial and employee responsibility for risk management (e.g., related to training and risk culture);
- Ensuring the independence of the Company's risk management function; and
- Integrating risk management and associated controls with management goals and compensation structure.
- The Committee shall review management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's risk management function, including the appropriateness and effectiveness of resources dedicated to risk management activities.

2.3 Risk Profile. The Committee shall monitor and understand changes to the risk profile of the Company, with a focus on the most significant risks faced by the Company, and shall escalate to the Board any matters of concern for discussion and potential action.

2.4 Risk Appetite. The Board will review and approve the Company's Risk Appetite Statement on at least an annual basis, subject to the Committee's recommendation. Changes to the Risk Appetite Statement (including underlying risk metrics) shall be approved by the Board (or a delegated committee authorized by the Board). The Committee shall oversee the Company's compliance with the Risk Appetite Statement on behalf of the Board. The Committee shall review and take appropriate action in response to notifications from management in the event any inner thresholds or outer limits pursuant to the Company's Risk Appetite Statement are exceeded.

2.5 Capital and Liquidity Risk Management. The Committee shall be responsible for the oversight of capital and liquidity risk management as detailed below.

With respect to capital risk management, the Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's capital planning and capital risk management processes. The Committee shall review, approve (jointly with Finance Committee) and recommend for Board approval, the Company's annual capital plan, taking into consideration the results of the review of the plan by the Risk and Internal Audit functions.

With respect to liquidity risk management, the Committee shall, in coordination with the Finance Committee:

- Review, approve (jointly with Finance Committee) and recommend for Board approval, at least annually, the liquidity risk management strategies (including liquidity tolerance), policies and procedures;
- Review and approve (jointly with Finance Committee), at least annually, the contingency funding plan that sets out the Company's strategies for addressing liquidity needs during liquidity stress events;
- In coordination with Finance Committee, review and discuss management reporting, at least quarterly, regarding the Company's liquidity risk profile and liquidity risk tolerance;
- Review and discuss other key liquidity-related information and reporting from management, including cash flow projection methodology and liquidity risk management issues from the Risk and Internal Audit functions (and management's corrective actions of such issues).

2.6 Resolution Plan. The Committee shall review and recommend for Board approval the Bank's Resolution Plan, and review and discuss the planning process and activities with management.

2.7 Chief Risk Officer. The Committee shall be responsible for the appointment, performance evaluation, compensation determination, and termination of the Chief Risk Officer (the "CRO"). The CRO shall be subject to dual reporting: (i) to the Committee on a functional basis, and (ii) to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company on an administrative basis. In particular, the CRO shall report regularly to the Committee on the Company's top risks, significant risk issues and overall risk management.

III. MEMBERSHIP, MEETINGS AND DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

3.1 Membership.

- The Committee shall not consist of fewer than three (3) members. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, the Committee shall be comprised of the chairpersons of the Board and each of the standing committees of the Board (Audit, Compensation, Credit, Finance and Governance) and any other members as determined by the Board.
- The Committee and its members shall meet the risk committee membership requirements as provided under the Federal Reserve's Enhanced Prudential Standards (Regulation YY; 12 CFR Part 252), as applicable to the Company.

3.2 Appointment and Term. The Governance Committee of the Board, in conjunction with the Board Chair, shall nominate for Board approval the Committee chairperson (the "Chair") and other members of the Committee to serve for a term of one year each, or in the case of vacancies, such other time period determined by the Board. The Chair and Committee members shall serve at the discretion of the Board.

3.3 Duties of Chair. The Chair (or in the Chair's absence, his or her designee) shall preside at all meetings of the Committee and perform any duties as may be assigned by the Board from time to time. The Chair shall also be responsible for ensuring that key actions taken and significant matters discussed by the Committee are reported to the Board on a regular basis.

3.4 Meetings. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at least quarterly at the time and place as the Board or Committee determines. The Committee may invite any director, officer or employee of the Company or the Bank or any outside consultant or adviser to attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any members of the Committee at any time. The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company's or the Bank's bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

3.5 Minutes. The secretary of the Committee (or any designee of the Chair) shall maintain minutes and other relevant records of the meetings and activities of the Committee. The minutes shall be available for review by the Board and any regulatory agency having jurisdiction over the affairs of SVBFG or the Bank. At any time where the secretary is not present, the Chair shall act as secretary, or designate an acting secretary, of the Committee for the purpose of recording the minutes the meeting or executive session.

3.6 Annual Review of Charter; Amendments. The Committee, in conjunction with the Governance Committee, shall review and assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. This Charter may be amended only by the Board.

3.7 Delegation of Authority. This Committee may form, and delegate its authority hereunder (as delegated by the Board) to, subcommittees when appropriate.
